1. DCI MEETING WITH CONGRESSMAN FRASER: According to George Cary, who attended the DCI's meeting with Congressman Fraser, the meeting has resulted in three decisions:

- no access to new information until the security matter is cleared, although, George Cary said, this did not come up for specific discussion at the meeting with Congressman Fraser;

- the eleven documents, or parts thereof, which when sanitized security permits public use, are to be given to the Subcommittee;

- with reference to the remaining documents, which contain facts that the Subcommittee believes important to their public case, the Subcommittee staff members are to meet with OLC and DDO representatives to identify the facts. There will then be a discussion on possible ways the Committee may use the facts, or conclusions from the facts, without compromising sources.

Bill Miller, SSCI Staff Director, and was told SSCI has addressed this problem. We think George Cary's well timed aggressiveness has removed this issue from the Fraser Subcommittee's terms of reference. [REDACTED]
